

By Marjorie Cohn

From Truthout | Original Article

~~...the CIA-backed units will remain in Afghanistan, including the notorious Special Operations Executive (SOE) units, which have been instrumental in the US military's operations in the region. The SOE units are known for their use of unconventional warfare tactics, including the use of suicide bombings and other forms of terrorism. The CIA has been accused of providing these units with training, equipment, and other resources. The SOE units have been instrumental in the US military's operations in Afghanistan, including the operations in the provinces of Helmand and Kandahar. The SOE units have been instrumental in the US military's operations in Afghanistan, including the operations in the provinces of Helmand and Kandahar. The SOE units have been instrumental in the US military's operations in Afghanistan, including the operations in the provinces of Helmand and Kandahar.~~

Depregan, Danted Killant, Moral and Caspolitical Issues