

On Thursday, April 23rd, 35 people got together to thank and encourage the Spanish Consulate and the people of Spain to prosecute the war criminals who tortured five innocent Spanish citizens. To show people on the street exactly what "waterboarding" of a person looked like a demonstration took place with volunteers from World Can't Wait and Movement for A Democratic Society. Watch the video here.