

PROSECUTE GEN. STANLEY A. McCHRYSTAL

FOR WAR CRIMES

- Complicity in the commission of a war crime – plunder of public and private property, failure to protect civilians in Afghanistan, Iraq and Pakistan.

- Complicity in the commission of a war crime – assassinations and other black operations in Afghanistan, Iraq, Pakistan and likely Syria and Iran.

Much of his career is highly classified to hide the various war crimes of the U.S.

worldcantwait.org • warcriminalswatch.org